VERSE #1:

I sense a storm in the making
Lighting and thunder line the sky
But I don't need a torch to guide me home

Two hearts can beat as one
When your love transcends belief
But a pair doesn't beat a royal flush

It's normal to outgrow
A child's blissful love of life
When the people you adore always slip through your fingers and transform

PRE-CHORUS:

Constellations shining brighter than the moon
I'll always have their light to help me grow

Cadd9 Asus4

CHORUS:

The myths and the legends
The stories from our youth
Their words float on the wind
And land amongst the stars
Reminders of the spirits
That we lost along the way
Always watching over me
As I step out of the shadows and learn to live

VERSE #2:

I've been asked if I'm lonely
But I've known love that never fades
Just look up at the night sky and you'll see

They say it's just a phase
Like the changing of the tides
But I've had time to outgrow all your hate

BRIDGE:

Again and again
The cycle never ends
It's time to change the narrative
It's time I lead the way
Sometimes the moon shines brighter than the sun

Cadd9 Asus4

CHORUS:

The myths and the legends
The stories from our youth
Their words float on the wind
And land amongst the stars
Reminders of the spirits
That we lost along the way
Always watching over me
As I step out of the shadows and learn to live
